MY INTERNSHIP EXPERIENCE AT AVA WEALTH CONSULTANCY JB

First day - Icebreaking session is da bomb!

- As usual we need to introduce our self, divided into groups and play games that instantly bond us like we already know each other before!

- Tips : do remember all the details of others as it will be used in the blanket game :P

2nd day until the end of this internship

- Mostly we went to lecture by Mr Andy Lim and Mr Amir. Most RELAX, FUN AND FULL OF LIFE KNOWLEDGE lecture EVER!

- We laugh and ENJOY most of the class. Yes seriously! =D

- Introducing my roommates and deskmate from left : Mazlini, Fatihah and Kak Farah

In spite of the lectures, AVA PLANNERS also gives us the opportunity to travel many places during this one month internship such as UTM, Forest City, Legoland, Puteri Harbour, Great eastern HQ, Kuala Lumpur, Bank Negara Malaysia Museum, Gunung Pulai Kulai and Great Eastern-branch visit.

First trip

- Sightseeing UTM
- To be honest, I just get to know that UTM actually have such beautiful village-like recreational site!
- Thanks to this trip;)

Next trip : Kuala Lumpur trip!

- Departure at 10.00am. Visit SG Yong Peng, Sg Bakri and SG Maluri on our way to KL.
- Having lunch at Nasi Ayam Haji Mustapha (Very recommended. Sponsored by Mr Andy;)
- On the next day, we visited Great Eastern HQ.
- We were given an honor to meet CEO of Great Eastern Takaful, Mr Shahrul. He was and still a very humble person. Shared his journey in takaful line, giving motivations to young agents like us.
- Next, we went to Bank Negara Malaysia Museum. There are many historical knowledge that we have gain here. We also had the chance to make our own money!

TO SUM UP MY INTERNSHIP AT AVA WEALTH CONSULTANCY

- An internship training where you will surely gain a lot of knowledge that was not taught in class. Weekdays got classes but got treats on weekend.
- We gain more knowledge on financial planning, family protection plan and corporate working ethics.
- Have clearer view on my career pathway after join this internship.
- Big thanks to Mr. Andy and Ms. Violet who never fail to be so professional and Caring to internship student.
- I would personally recommending this internship to other students, whom seeking for a clearer career pathway.
- Always do what you can do, become better and better person!.
